Special Meeting of

Held on the 3d of December Inst.,

The following Preamble and Resolutions were passed unanimously: Whereas, the everlasting wheels of time are constantly rolling over on the mighty axletree of centuries and will eventually bring the first of January, the fourth of March, and the inauguration of Abe Lincoln, OF Therefore, in view of the foregoing facts, be it

Resolved, That we are indeed greatly in need of MONEY, and must have it.

Resolved, That we advise and admonish all who owe us to pay up. Messrs. Bulpin, Gregson & Elliot, Resolved, That we request them to get money by some hook or crook, scheme or contrivance, (if half way honest) and pay up.

Resolved, That all persons who do not make a settlement by Return Day, WILL BE SUED indiscriminately, without dread or fear of Abe Lincoln, or the secession of the Southern States.

Resolved, That we beseech all to read this advertisement, and think of their own case. Do not pass it idly by,

The meeting then adjourned sine die. December 3, 1860, 32.
